Roland Kasper leaves as President and CEO of Systemair

The Board of Directors of Systemair AB (publ) and Roland Kasper agreed today that Roland will leave Systemair after ten years as President and CEO. The process of recruiting a new President and CEO will begin immediately. Roland will remain in his role until a successor is appointed.

"Under Roland's leadership Systemair has doubled the turnover and improved the profitability. This has been achieved by organic growth in combination with acquisitions. In addition, Roland has strengthened the organisation and implemented several restructurings. Systemair is well equipped for the future with a strong global organisation and low debt. Future focus will be to continue our growth journey with increased profitability, and it is now the right time for a new CEO to develop Systemair forward. The Board wants to thank Roland for the great achievements since he started at Systemair 2007, whereof the last ten years as CEO," says Gerald Engström, Chairman of Systemair.
